

Code of Conduct Policy

This document outlines the code of conduct for the organization. It includes guidelines on professional behavior, ethical standards, respectful communication, and compliance with company policies. Employees are expected to uphold these standards in all interactions within and outside the workplace.

Please customize this section with specific rules, disciplinary procedures, and examples relevant to your organization.